At 10:30 a.m., March 24, 1973, approximately 25 college-age individuals, both male and female, resumed a demonstration in front of the U.S. Post Office, 520 Willamette Street, Eugene, Oregon, housing the Eugene, Oregon, Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Demonstration supported American Indian Movement (AIM) activity at Wounded Knee, South Dakota. Demonstrators used public address system to address passers-by with the history of Wounded Knee, with current activity at Wounded Knee, and to solicit support of Eugene residents. Demonstrators carried placards and signs with slogans reading: "America stands on native land;" "The Indians have asked for freedom and self-determination;" "Nixon has responded with a blockade and daily machine gun fire."

The demonstrators paraded up and down in front of the Post Office passing out mimeographed fliers entitled, "Wounded Knee News No. 1." The flier announced the creation of a new independent Indian nation at Wounded Knee and gave the history of past events at Wounded Knee. Demonstrators appealed for money to be sent to AIM, Box 788, Rapid City, South Dakota, in care of C. P. Jordan. The demonstration ended at 12:30 p.m., March 24, 1973.

SUMMARY

Attached indicates a source advised [redacted] who appears to have assumed a leadership role in American Indian Movement (AIM), Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota (SD), is considering ultimatum to U. S. Government that if negotiations not opened by noon, 3/28/73, call will go out for every militant group in U. S. to come to Rapid City (RC), SD, with firearms, by 3/30/73, followed by march to Pine Ridge City, 3/31/73. Allegedly, presence of 2,000 to 5,000 radicals in RC would draw Federal authorities from Wounded Knee (WK), SD, currently occupied by Indians. Reportedly initial reaction of New Left activists is negative. Other teletypes report: Demonstration 3/24/73, Cleveland, Ohio, to protest treatment of Indians at WK. Unknown female, during demonstration, mentioned possibility existed several individuals from Cleveland area considering travel to WK in support of Indians there. Sources have no knowledge of such plans. Vernon Bellecourt, AIM leader, will not, according to members of AIM, return to Robeson County, North Carolina, in fear he will be convicted of outstanding charges of disorderly conduct. Indians may gather near Hennepin, Oklahoma, 3/31/73, for "repeat performance" of WK. Five truck loads of Indians may take part and AIM may be involved. Appropriate FBI Offices investigating to develop more data.

3/31/73 demonstration in support of AIM proposed, to be held at Federal Building,
Providence, Rhode Island, sponsored by
Attica Brigade and local antiwar group.
On same date, demonstration planned
by AIM members and supporters at Lawrence, Kansas (Kan.). Plans call for demonstrators to go to St. Mary's, Kan., for "pow wow" and on 4/1/73 to Horton, Kan.,
for demonstration at Bureau of Indian Affairs there. Any indication of possible Antiriot Law and/or other Federal violations will be vigorously pursued.

This memorandum pertains to the current status of the Antiriot Laws (ARL) investigations concerning individuals moving in interstate commerce to support the occupiers of Wounded Knee.

To date, 34 ARL investigations have been initiated and 31 individuals arrested and charged with violation of Title 18, USC, Section 2101, after having undertaken interstate travel to render personal or material support to the occupiers of Wounded Knee. This does not include a substantial number of others arrested for possible ARL violations at and around Wounded Knee.

On 3/25/73 Andrew W. Bogue, United States District Judge, United States District Court for the District of South Dakota, Western Division, signed an order authorizing until 12:00 p.m., 3/31/73, the daily delivery of medical supplies, drugs, food, and fuel to the residents and occupants of Wounded Knee. On 3/26/73 William P. Tyson, Criminal Division, Department of Justice, advised the court order is not being interpreted as preventing continued enforcement of Title 18, USC, Section 2101.

We are continuing to thoroughly investigate all indications of possible ARL violations and a teletype to all field divisions to that effect has been sent.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

SUMMARYDate 3/29/73

Attached reports 3/31/73 rally and march planned for Gallup, New Mexico, to protest treatment of Indians in Gallup and in support of Indians occupying Wounded Knee (WK), South Dakota (SD). President of club sponsoring above activity reportedly stated, in effect, that event will be peaceful but if Indians cannot accomplish aims through peaceful means they may have to resort to violence. Appropriate authorities cognizant locally. Other teletypes report: Minnesota-Dakotas District, Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA) leader reportedly stated her group had one attorney in area of WK; also, that U.S. Marshal shot at WK is best friend of judge who ordered food into WK. This individual also said her group has been trying to secure intervention by a U. S. Senator and a Congressman. CPUSA National Organization Secretary suggested John Abt, attorney who has represented CPUSA and its members, be contacted. News article, Lewiston, Idaho, reported individual to depart Washington State, 3/29/73 with food and money for WK. Source of our New York Office advised conversation and speculation regarding caravan to WK was for purpose of creating added tension on Government personnel at WK. 4/1/73 national demonstration Indian Lutheran Board donated $238,000 of this sum; the United States Catholic Conference, Washington, D. C., $40,000; and the World Council of Churches, New York, $6,000. Over the past four years, the American Lutheran Church in Minnesota has donated $37,000. The United Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and Lutheran organizations gave $20,000 to the Trail of Broken Treaties caravan to pay for food and transportation for travel to Washington, D. C., which resulted in the takeover of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Building by American Indians under the leadership of AIM. On March 24, 1973, Lester Kinsolving, in a column in "The Evening Star," Washington, D. C., stated the Trail of Broken Treaties received $4,500 from the United Methodist Church, New York, and $10,000 from the Episcopal Church in Seattle, Washington. The article in "The Omaha World-Herald," mentioned above, stated the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) in 1968 gave $48,643 to the Spokane, Washington, Chapter of AIM.

Lester Kinsolving, in his article of March 24, 1973, stated in September, 1971, the Campaign for Human Development of the Roman Catholic Church donated $40,000 to AIM.

Articles in "The Sunday Star" on December 5, 1972, and the "Legislative Review," Volume II, dated November, 1972, published by the Indian Legal Information Development Service, advised OEO gave $66,650 to the Indians occupying the Bureau of Indian Affairs Building, Washington, D. C., during November, 1972.

On March 18, 1973, an article in "The Detroit News," Detroit, Michigan, by staff writer John E. Peterson, stated more than half of the AIM members and sympathizers occupying Wounded Knee, South Dakota, were employees of social welfare agencies financed primarily by Federal grants and that AIM, since its founding in 1968, has received over $400,000 in Federal funds. The article continues that on June 21, 1972, OEO gave AIM a grant of $113,000 for "survival schools" and an Indian community center.

Disorders Caused by Members of the American Indian Movement (AIM)

More recently during the occupation of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, numerous demonstrations have been held around the country in support of this occupation and to obtain funds, food, and medical supplies. In Chicago fliers were distributed indicating financial donations could be sent to C. P. Jordan, Box 788, Rapid City, South Dakota. An individual identified by the Chicago news media as a "former dedicated communist," John Albert Rossen, is alleged to have contributed $1,500 to a group called Youth for Legal Defense of Indians Arrested.

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) demonstrated in support of AIM in Cincinnati, Ohio, on March 21, 1973, and requested money be sent to the Wounded Knee Memorial, Box 147, Rapid City, South Dakota.

[redacted] a student at the State University of New York at Buffalo, solicited $50. from the VVAW at the State University of New York for Wounded Knee.

The La Kota Coalition, a group formed in Rapid City, South Dakota, to support the AIM effort at Wounded Knee, has recently issued bulletins requesting money be sent to the Black Hill Brotherhood in care of the above-mentioned C. P. Jordan. A musical group known as the Almand Brothers and Capricorn Recordings have reportedly organized eight concerts to raise $2 to $6 million for the Wounded Knee Memorial Trust Fund.

It is known two of the individuals arrested as shown above are known to have been in the BIA building during the occupation but it is not known if they were involved in removing the property for which charged from the BIA.

On 11/22/72 five persons were indicted by Federal Grand Jury, Oklahoma City for violation of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 641 (property stolen from BIA, WDC). Three subjects were thereafter arrested on 11/23/72, one arrested 11/25/72 and one surrendered to U.S. Marshal 11/28/72. Disorders Caused by Members of the American Indian Movement (AIM)

Question # 7

After the publication on January 5, 1973, of an article in the Rapid City Journal regarding AIM's expressed intention to "literally chain up the doors of...Federal agencies..." in Rapid City, what preventive steps were taken by the Department of Justice and what were the results?

Answer

The Rapid City Journal, a newspaper published daily in Rapid City, South Dakota, on January 5, 1973, published an article wherein Ron Petite, described as the former Executive Director of the Sioux Indian Emergency Care and Rehabilitation Center at Sioux Sanitorium, Rapid City, was quoted that he, Petite, had contacted AIM and requested that AIM come to Rapid City to "literally chain up the doors of big business enterprises, Federal agencies, and State and local Community Service agencies." Petite stated this action was being taken "to focus national attention on the mistreatment of Indian Veterans."

Appropriate local, state, and Federal authorities began to take precautions for possible civil disorders.

Subsequent to this announcement, members of AIM began to gather in Rapid City preparatory to staging demonstrations.

The FBI assigned manpower to Rapid City to be fully alert to the possibility of Federal criminal violations on part of demonstrators and appropriate FBI offices were advised to determine the identities and mode of travel of any individuals traveling to Rapid City to participate in demonstrations. It had been determined that some AIM members could be armed and that there could be confrontations between demonstrators and local authorities in Rapid City.

Information of interest to the local and state authorities obtained by the FBI was promptly furnished to appropriate authorities.

The FBI at the request of the U.S. Department of Justice is presently conducting investigations into the possible violations of the Federal Antiriot Laws statutes, National Firearms Act and State Firearms Control Assistance Act, and other Federal statutes based upon some acts of violence that occurred in Custer and Rapid City, South Dakota.

Question # 11

Provide an estimate of the damages to real and personal property which has been suffered by virtue of the seizure and occupation of the Pine Ridge trading post and of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, by the Indians.

Answer

James A. Czywczynski, Wounded Knee, South Dakota, majority stockholder in Sioux, Inc., doing business as Wounded Knee Trading Post, had advised he owns 40 acres of land, several houses, a general store and trading post, and a museum in Wounded Knee, in addition to his own home. He estimated the loss attributable to the takeover of Wounded Knee at $1,025,000. That loss is broken down as follows:

Inventory	$130,000
Fixtures	$230,000
Museum Artifacts	$450,000
Accounts Receivable	$108,000
Personal Belongings	$ 42,000
Personal Belongings of Gildersleeve	$ 220,000
Vehicles	$ 20,000
Trailer Belongings	$ 15,000
Residence of Mary Pike	$ 8,000

Czywczynski made this estimate on 3/3/73 following inspection of the above property subsequent to the AIM takeover of Wounded Knee.

In addition to the above loss, an undetermined number of cattle have been rustled and slaughtered by individuals occupying Wounded Knee.

Question # 14 (second Question # 14)

Provide a list of all participants in the seizure and/or occupation of Pine Ridge and Wounded Knee, South Dakota; indicate their residence; indicate whether the individual is an Indian and, if so, his tribal affiliation; and indicate if such person also participated in the seizure and/or occupation of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Building in Washington, D. C., during November, 1972.

Answer

The individuals listed below have been arrested in the vicinity of Wounded Knee or are subjects of complaints and warrants issued at Rapid City for Federal violations occurring in the Wounded Knee area. Others listed below have been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury (FGJ) seated in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Identifying and background data concerning these individuals in some cases is incomplete inasmuch as these subjects have been totally uncooperative and hostile. It is possible that these individuals furnished incorrect names, residences, and Indian tribe affiliation. It should be noted that the community of Wounded Knee is not completely sealed off by the Federal roadblocks for there is an area of twelve miles in circumference which cannot completely be covered. There is a constant movement of sympathizers into and out of Wounded Knee and, therefore, a precise count of occupants at a given time is not feasible.

The following list of individuals was compiled from arrest records, Federal complaints filed and indictments returned:

Question # 21

State whether the Department of Justice has established an intelligence network to procure information on this and similar situations, and further state if the Department of Justice has information and/or reason to believe that there may be similar occurrences, setting forth such information.

Answer

At the request of the Department of Justice in a November 21, 1972, letter from Ralph E. Erickson, Deputy Attorney General, the Federal Bureau of Investigation intensified its efforts to identify violence-prone individuals or organizations involved in American Indian activities, particularly the AIM organization. The Federal Bureau of Investigation is collecting and disseminating information of an intelligence nature and is conducting investigation regarding possible violations of Federal statutes arising out of the occupation of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, and similar situations in Custer and Rapid City, South Dakota. The overall purpose of the Federal Bureau of Investigation intelligence investigations is to develop detailed advance information concerning planned demonstrations and disorders by organized and individual Indian militants.

Confidential sources have indicated that Indian extremists are considering similar disorders in other parts of the country. AIM activists and associates have stated their intention to abduct the mayor and chief of police of Gallup, New Mexico, and take over that community's city hall; have discussed destroying power facilities near Four Corners, New Mexico, and Black Mesa, Arizona; and have proposed taking over the Tellico Dam Project in Loudon County, Tennessee. The Federal Bureau of Investigation would have the same intelligence and investigative responsibilities in such disturbances as it has had with respect to the previously mentioned disorders.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

SUMMARYDate 4/2/73

You have been advised of demonstrations and other support given American Indians occupying Wounded Knee (WK), South Dakota. Attached reports that on 3/31/73, about 100 persons, of whom about 70 were Indians, conducted peaceful demonstration at Buffalo, New York. Some leaflets were handed out under name of Students for a Democratic Society. Leaflet was headed "Wounded Knee Means Fight Back," and attacked U. S. Government for its racist policy. Leaflet called for support of native Americans and contributions to American Indian Movement (AIM). Other teletypes report: On 3/31/73, about 100 persons marched peacefully at Lawrence, Kansas in support of AIM objectives and Indians at WK. Group planned to spend night at St. Mary's, Kansas, and hold 4/1/73 demonstration at Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) offices, Horton, Kansas. During evening, 3/31/73 about 70 persons, of whom about 20 per cent were Indians, held "pow wow" at St Mary's and were told demonstration at BIA, Horton, had been called off; no demonstrators showed up at Horton on 4/1/73. Any indication of possible Antiriot Law and/or other Federal violations will be vigorously pursued.

DEMONSTRATION BY AMERICAN INDIANS
AGAINST THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IN SUPPORT OF AMERICAN
INDIANS AT WOUNDED KNEE, SOUTH DAKOTA
PORTLAND, OREGON MARCH 21, 1973

On March 21, 1973, a demonstration by American Indians was held at the U.S. Federal Courthouse, Main and Broadway Streets, Portland, Oregon, directed against the United States Department of Justice in support of American Indians at Wounded Knee, South Dakota. The demonstration lasted from Twelve Noon to 3:00 PM and was comprised of approximately 25 American Indians, many of whom carried placards denouncing the 371 Indian treaties broken by the U.S. Government.

[redacted] an Oregon based American Indian activist [redacted] of American Indian Affairs of CISCO (Chicano Indian Study Center of Oregon), and [redacted] a Portland, Oregon, American Indian activist, directed the demonstration. ORL

CISCO is a teaching and research division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education located on the campus of the Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, Oregon.

[redacted] and [redacted] both made speeches to the demonstrators calling for fair and equal treatment of American Indians at Wounded Knee, South Dakota. [redacted] stated that if Indians were killed at Wounded Knee, certain individuals throughout the United States would carry out certain acts of retaliation, however [redacted] did not mention any specific names or types or targets of retaliatory actions.

PORTLAND, OREGON      MARCH 21, 1973

At the request of [ ] United States Attorney Sidney I. Lezak, Portland, Oregon, appeared before the demonstrators on the north steps of the Courthouse. U.S. Attorney Lezak expressed his understanding of the American Indians plight and frustrations. In response to a question from one of the demonstrators, U.S. Attorney Lezak stated that under the Federal Anti-Riot Law, persons traveling to Wounded Knee, South Dakota, with supplies for those persons occupying Wounded Knee, may be in violation of the law and subject to arrest and prosecution.

An article in the March 22, 1973, edition of the "Oregon Journal Newspaper", Portland, Oregon, stated that Mr. Lezak told the demonstrators that his office has defended Indians prosecuted by Oregon and won every case and that his office also has won a court order to keep the state from interfering with Indians in fishing on the Columbia River. The "Oregon Journal" quoted Mr. Lezak as saying, "Where our view of a treaty coincides with that of a tribe, we'll work against the state or industry." The article further stated that Mr. Lezak praised the Indians for using their democratic right in a peaceful demonstration and promised to forward to the Justice Department in Washington, D.C., an Indian complaint. The article explained that the Indian complaint calls on President Nixon to name a "presidential emissary to negotiate directly with the Sioux" (newspaper's quotes), asks for a presidential review of "4,000 treaties, statutes and judicial decisions between the U.S. Government and Indians," (newspaper's quotes), asks for a congressional investigation of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and calls on President Nixon to uphold the Medicine Creek Treaty of 1855 with Northwest Indians.

Following Mr. Lezak's comments, the demonstration ended and the participants quietly dispersed in orderly fashion.

No incidents and no arrests occurred.
